We had a great lunch at the Oasis Café in SkyVenture Park in Nashua, NH. What a facility! We watched surfers practicing on the fantastic waves, and then went upstairs to watch the Skydivers. WOW! We were so impressed with the diversity of the fliers. Some were novices while others really flew! There were people on the climbing wall, as well as in the Fish Pipe water slide. These were especially fun activities to do during school vacation week, which it happened to be. We were shown the separate rooms that can hold meetings as well as celebrations. One room was set up for celebrations with tables and a large screen system. It played videos of the kids when they had been playing on the various activities earlier. Nice setup! This place offers single events, rents out for special events, runs summer camps, and even has full single day activities! They also have Keno. Fun for all ages!

Laurie, one of the owners, did a fabulous job taking care of us., spending time showing us around and answering our questions. Lunch was delicious and it was a great space, next to the Surf's up pool. They had a special of a walnut and cranberry sandwich on a croissant or ciabatta roll that was wonderful. It's a very inviting place for lunch even if you aren't able to partake in any of the attractions. Check out their menu at <https://skyventurenh.com/oasis-cafe/>.
