

Top 10 reasons to visit the MONADNOCK REGION

10. Antiquing – as only the Monadnock Region can do it! The Antiques and Collectibles Mall of New England in Greenville and the many small shops found in Peterborough and Fitzwilliam, especially, are among the shops throughout the region containing treasures displayed in the old buildings and barns of this classic New England area
9. Take a paddle on beautiful Lake Nubanusit
or kayak, canoe, swim or fish in the myriad of lakes, rivers and streams
8. Ski, Tube Board, Cross Country Ski and Snowshoe your way through winter.
Granite Gorge Ski Area, Crotched Mountain Ski & Ride, Rail Trails and East Hill Farm
7. Take a drive and meet an artist
during one of several art tours each fall: Monadnock Art Tour, Fall Foliage Art Tour, Keene Art Tour. Foliage is peaking and many small personal studios and galleries that dot the small towns and back roads of the Monadnock Region are open to visitors. IF we are still at home, check out Arts Alive! Monadnock for information about virtual events
6. Until we can gather for performances again, enjoy the amazing online offerings from:
the Colonial Theater in Keene, the Peterborough Player's Theater, the Mariposa Museum of folk art and folk culture; Monadnock Music's Concerts, Electric Earth Concerts, Apple Hill Center for Chamber Music, and so much more.
5. Visit Hannah Grimes Marketplace in Keene
Which features handmade and local gifts and food. Or explore any of the many small personal studios and galleries dotting the small towns and back roads of the Monadnock Region.
4. Virtual tours and historic moments blog posts are part of the Historical Society of Cheshire County's pandemic offerings...and once we are back in person, you can continue to see history comes alive in the Monadnock Region – program rich Historical Societies and cultural museums like Horatio Colony House and Wyman Tavern and the Franklin Pierce Homestead
3. Uniquely Experience Monadnock:
You can milk a cow at Stonewall Farm; bottle feed a lamb at East Hill Farm; or feed the chickens at Friendly Farm Spend a peaceful afternoon at the Cathedral of the Pines or Rhododendron State Park. Visit the Raptor Observatory on Pack Monadnock. The list of unique regional experiences goes on & on!
2. Three words: Chocolate, Chocolate, Chocolate
You can munch your way through the Monadnock Region at scrumdillyicious hand-made chocolate shops like world famous LA Burdick's, Ava Marie's, Vicuna, Ye Goodie Shoppe & Life is Sweet

And the #1 reason to visit the MONADNOCK REGION

Climb Mount Monadnock

Want to know more?

Contact the Monadnock Travel Council at www.monadnocktravel.com