Nestled in the mountains of New Hampshire and surrounded by pristine ponds and lakes, this region is truly a special place for all seasons. Whether you are fortunate enough to call the Lake Sunapee Region home or you're just visiting, you will find breathtaking scenery, warm friendly smiles and four-season recreational opportunities in our many quaint towns and villages.

For more than two centuries, visitors have chosen New Hampshire's Lake Sunapee Region as their ideal year-round vacation destination. Located in the western part of New Hampshire, this area offers a relaxed lifestyle and boasts a wide variety of activities for all ages. Stroll through the charming New England villages with their fine inns, tasty restaurants, and unique shops. Take advantage of a full calendar of activities and cultural events. For the outdoor lover in all of us, this region offers a wide array of things to do out of doors including boating, kayaking, biking, hiking, swimming, fishing, hunting, alpine and cross-country skiing, snowmobiling and ice boating.

The Lake Sunapee Region Chamber of Commerce services towns in the Sullivan and Merrimack counties. Our towns and villages have evolved and grown, preserving their historic past while enhancing our way of life with new homes, modern schools, colleges and quality medical facilities. The entrepreneurial spirit thrives here with many small businesses and shops that cater to the needs of both residents and visitors.

We hope you enjoy this guide to the Lake Sunapee Region designed to help you explore the richness of our area, its communities, businesses and organizations. Discover our fine products and services, great places to stay and dine, as well as fun things to do all year round. Welcome and enjoy!

Andover*Town Clerk 735-5332

Snuggled between Ragged Mountain and Mount Kearsarge, the town of Andover is dotted with many small lakes and ponds. Home to Proctor Academy, this scenic town with two covered bridges is a favorite spot for photographers. The picturesque train station (at Potter Place) serves as the Andover Historical Society's museum. Kayak and canoe lovers enjoy the Blackwater River.

Bradford*Town Clerk 938-2288*www.bradfordnh.com

Called the gateway to the Lake Sunapee region, Bradford is a perfect year-round community. Its history and charm combine to offer guests a warm and entertaining visit. There are several inns and bed and breakfasts to accommodate visitors in true country charm.

Danbury*Town Clerk 768-5448

This peaceful town is ideal for fishing, hiking, biking or walking along quiet country roads. Home to Ragged Mountain Resort, which offers great skiing and riding in the winter and golfing during the warmer months.

Grantham*Town Clerk 863-5608*www.granthamnh.com

Outdoor recreation is plentiful with Eastman Golf Links, the Eastman Cross Country Ski Center, an ice skating pond and the man-made Eastman Lake with a public boat launch. For hikers (and snowmobilers in winter), the Donas J. and Margaret Reney Memorial Forest offers a 428-acre recreation area. Grantham Village School has a nature trail for hiking and a recreational bike trail winds through the woods parallel to Interstate 89.

Newbury*Town Clerk 763-5326*www.newburynh.org

Where the mountain meets the lake, Newbury's natural beauty is home to Mount Sunapee Resort and State Park, the Mount Sunapee State Beach (the only state beach on Lake Sunapee), The Fells Historic Estate and Gardens and home of The League of New Hampshire Craftsmen's Fair. Newbury Harbor has a town beach, a picnic area, a waterfront gazebo and a public pier.

Newport*Town Clerk 863-2224*www.newportnh.net

Nicknamed the "Sunshine Town" by vaudevilian Bill B. Van. The Town Common, one of the largest in the state, provides wonderful space for activities and events all year long with ice skating in the winter and free Sunday evening concerts in the summer. Newport boasts three covered bridges as well as the Library Arts Center and the Newport Opera House.

New London*Town Clerk 526-1244*www.nl-nh.com

This picture-perfect town features a variety of unique retail shops, fine dining, lodging and the wonderful summer entertainment of the Barn Playhouse. The Village Green, surrounded by the classic New London Inn, the wonderful tree-lined campus of Colby-Sawyer College and the quintessential New England-style First Baptist Church, is a lovely place to sit and take in the views.

Springfield*Town Clerk 763-4805*www.springfieldnh.net

This small town offers big outdoor opportunities, with several lakes and ponds, including Lake Kolelemook. Abandoned roads meander through the nearly 7,000-acre Gile State Forest and offer an opportunity for hikers, snowshoers, skiers and snowmobilers to enjoy year-round. Kimpton Brook, Morgan Pond and Butterfield Pond, all popular fishing spots are within its borders. McDaniel's Marsh, is a great place to kayak.

Sunapee*Town Clerk 763-2449*www.town.sunapee.nh.us

Starting at the northern most tip of the lake and following along the western shore, Sunapee is a wonderful waterfront community. Originally an agricultural area, then manufacturing, today the main focus is recreation. Sunapee Harbor is a great place to spend a summer day with shops, a narrated boat tour, kayak rentals, ice cream, waterfront dining and a town boat launch. Although the era of the grand hotels is long gone, you can still find wonderful lodging in Sunapee with charming cottages, as well as quaint inns and bed & breakfasts.

Sutton*Town Clerk 927-4575*www.sutton-nh.gov

A scenic central location offering a view of Mount Kearsarge as well as Rollins State Park, a picnic area and the departure point for the half-mile hike to the mountain's bare granite summit. Wadleigh State Beach on the shore of Kezar Lake in North Sutton is ideal for a family summer outing. Musterfield Farm, a working farm, is open to the public and features many special events that are fun for all ages.

Warner*Town Clerk 456-3362*www.warner.nh.us

Filled with New England charm, Main Street is the town's center and the hub of its business and cultural activities. The distinctive buildings in this rural community are home to many interesting shops and popular restaurants as well as private residences. The Mt. Kearsarge Indian Museum offers a cornucopia of Indian lore and artifacts, primarily from the Abenaki tribe.

Wilmot*Town Clerk 526-9639*www.wilmotnh.org

A small quiet village just minutes from New London amenities, Wilmot boasts some lovely inns and bed and breakfasts, offering the perfect spot to stay. Just four miles north of Wilmot Center on Route 4A is the Gardner Memorial Wayside area, a great picnic spot where you can enjoy the scenic brook and stone foundations of an 1880's mill.
